

Our Service Commitment

A team of qualified professionals is responsible for your transaction from the commitment stage through a successful closing

All telephone calls are returned promptly within the same business day

Internet access to Industry Leading Technology: New Order Express and Commercial Transaction Management System

Time saving electronic wire transfer capabilities

Residential title commitments are delivered within three to five business days

Commercial title commitments are delivered within five to seven business days

Response to underwriting issues within twenty-four hours

Construction draw requests are reviewed within forty-eight hours

Residential title policies are issued within thirty business days after closing

Commercial title policies are issued within twenty business days after closing